

September

Staff Recommends...

Brittany

“The perfect book for anyone who feels like they don’t belong. A great blend between an adult fantasy novel and a novel about finding your place in the world.”

The Magicians
by Lev Grossman

Patricia

Ordinary Grace
by William Kent Krueger
eAudiobook

Dickensian
(DVD)

“A blend of all of Charles Dickens’ novels that bring about new scandals and mysteries.”

Mary

Save the Date
by Morgan Matson

“My husband and I listened to this wonderful book on RB Digital Audio Books in the car on a recent trip. It tells the story of a 13 year old boy, his family and community, and the tragedies they experience in a small town in Minnesota. Murder, adultery, betrayal, secrets, lies, all in an innocent time in 1961. The boy searches for meaning, wisdom and the enduring grace of God.”

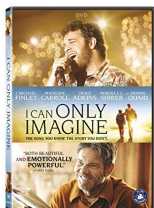

“A light hearted read for all teens! A cute story of family, wedding disasters, and dealing with changes.”

Goodbye Things
by Fumio Sasaki

Amanda

“Loved this eye-opening perspective. Encourages living simply.”

I Can Only Imagine
(DVD)

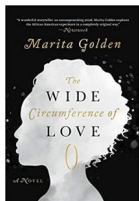

“Try not to cry, I dare you!”

Misty

Blood Water Paint
by Joy McCullough

“A well written, emotionally captivating book! I couldn’t put it down.”

The Wide Circumference of Love
by Marita Golden
eAudiobook

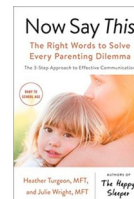

“Beautiful book about a family dealing with Alzheimer’s disease. The audio narration will not disappoint.”

Iona

A Thousand Mornings
by Mary Oliver

“This book of poetry is insightful and calming. I love reading Oliver’s poems with my morning coffee.”

Now Say This
by Heather Turgeon
&
Julie Wright

“Kind strategies for effective communication with little ones.”