

Staff Recommends...

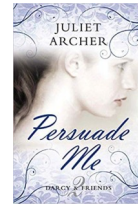

The Simple Wild
by K.A. Tucker

“Alaska, I never wanted to live there before, but the author makes me want to move.”

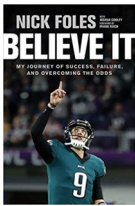

Sir Simon: Super Scarer
by Cale Atkinson

“HILARIOUS! One of the most clever picture books I have ever read!”

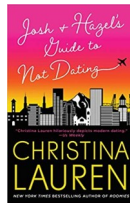

Persuade Me
by Juliet Archer
eAudiobook

“I can’t get enough of these Persuasion re-tellings.”

Believe It
By Nick Foles

“Nick Foles is very open and humble. He writes about faith, family, and football, and it’s one of my favorite memoirs of 2018. Fly Eagles Fly!”

Josh and Hazel’s Guide to Not Dating by Christina Lauren

“Everything about this book is fun! Romantic comedies are making a comeback.”

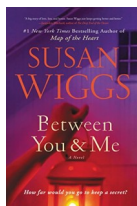

Ruined
by Amy Tintera

“I was hooked from the beginning with the undercover missions and hidden agendas. Great read!”

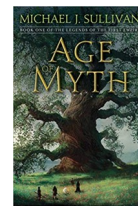

Court of Shadows
by Madeleine Roux

“Just as good as the first in the series! This book is creepy and has a very gothic horror feel to it. Perfect read for October!”

Between You and Me
by Susan Wiggs

“This is a very moving story between an Amish man and an “Englischer” woman. Two cultures clash when they are forced by unfortunate circumstances to come together. Love, healing, and finding one’s true path are the major themes in this very touching book.”

Age of Myth
by Michael J. Sullivan

Great way to start off a series. I really liked all of the characters. I highly suggest the audiobook narrated by Tim Gerard Reynolds. It is like listening to a full cast of narrators.”