

November

Staff Recommends...

The Forest Queen
by Betsy Cornwell

"I am such a sucker for fairy tale re-tellings. Especially, if it's Robin Hood, and especially if Robin Hood is a woman."

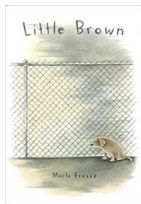

Book Club
(DVD)

"Such a funny, lighthearted movie about a friend's long lasting book club."

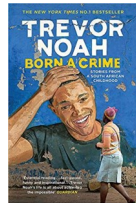

The Black Witch
by Laurie Forest

"Amazing! One of the best books I have ever read- so magical that I couldn't put it down."

Little Brown
by Marla Frazee

"A surprisingly emotional and thought provoking picture book."

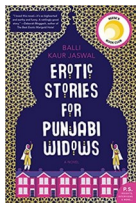

Born a Crime
by Trevor Noah

"A memoir that shares the beautiful bond between a son and mother. Inspirational and hilarious!"

Next Year in Havana
By Chanel Cleeton

"If you ever wanted to visit Cuba, just read this book. It will take you there. I learned so much reading this beautifully written novel."

Erotic Stories for Punjabi Widows
by Balli Kaur Jaswal

"The story dealt with generational and cultural tensions in the most hilarious way. The audio version will have you laughing out loud."

Keeping Faith
(Acorn TV)

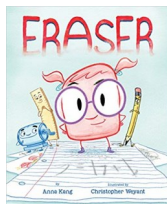

"This is a fantastic new TV show for crime and mystery fans! Acorn TV has so many good shows to binge watch on a lazy weekend."

Imagine Dragons
Smoke and Mirrors
Live (Qello)

"Imagine Dragons concerts are AMAZING! Love that I can watch one on Qello without having to pay for tickets!"

Patricia

Eraser
by Anna Kang

"A very cleverly written and illustrated children's book. I loved it!"

Dracula Untold
(DVD)

"I devour any Dracula origin story that I can get my hands on. This one was an interesting and action filled treat."

Brittany

