

DECEMBER

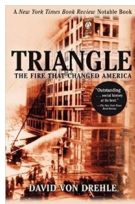

Staff Recommends...

Brittany

Stalking Jack the Ripper
by Kerri Maniscalco

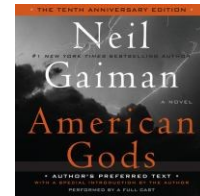

"I don't know why it took me so long to get to this book! It is everything you could want from a good mystery novel."

Iona

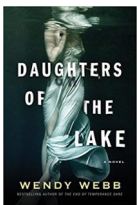

Triangle: The Fire that Changed America
by David von Drehle

"This book is about much more than the Triangle Shirtwaist factory fire. It's one of the best books on 20th century America that I've read."

American Gods
by Neil Gaiman (eAudiobook)

"Narrated by a full cast, this is one of my favorite audiobooks!"

Misty

Daughters of the Lake
by Wendy Webb

"I survived my 1st scary book and I LOVED it! I couldn't put this down -intense, suspenseful, and gothically amazing!"

Patricia

Bringing up Bebe
by Pamela Druckerman

"An entertaining read about child rearing in France. Finding herself raising children in France, Ms. Druckerman started noticing how well behaved most French children are in public. In the book, she explores the reasons behind the French philosophies of child rearing. From observing a child's natural rhythm to teaching a child to "wait", this book leaves you with a few simple techniques that will improve your child's behavior and give parents more freedom to enjoy being a parent."

The Last Chaplain
by Carl M. White

"Danger, suspense, adventure! A great book by a new author."

Mary

The Viking's Chosen
by Quinn Loftis

"This was a great historical romance with some fantasy thrown in. It has magic and seers and other good stuff. It was a great mix, and I definitely recommend it."

Poached
by Rachel Love

"Explores the illegal trade of wildlife. It is interesting and at the same time disturbing because this illegal practice is driving many species to extinction."

