

January

Staff Recommends...

Cottage by the Sea
by Debbie Macomber

“A young woman finds a healing place in a small town after a tragedy rocks her world.”

Juliet, Naked
(DVD)

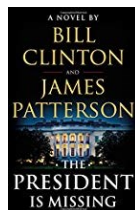

“This movie made me laugh AND made me cry. This is a beautiful love story of sorts but also about loving yourself. Ethan Hawke and Rose Byrne don't disappoint.”

Seafire
by Natalie C. Parker

“I can't get enough of these pirate stories. This one follows the captain of an all-female ship intent on taking down a corrupt warlord's powerful fleet. I know, I've got you hooked already.”

Patricia

The President is Missing
by James Patterson & Bill Clinton

“A fast-paced political thriller!”

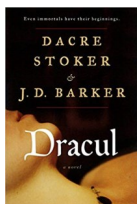

Westworld Season 1
(DVD)

“What a unique and mind-blowing show. I can't wait to watch the second season.”

Brittany

Misty

Dracul
by Dacre Stoker

“The history of Bram Stoker has always intrigued me! This book is well written, fed my obsession, and left me craving more!”

Mary

Warcross
by Marie Lu

“This is different than what I normally read, and the world Lu creates is so well done. I could see it and actually believe it with the progression of technology these days. I definitely recommend for any age, a very clean read.”

Amanda

The Curse of the Boyfriend Sweater
by Alanna Okun

“Some of us run, some of us eat chocolate...Alanna knits sweaters! A laugh out loud read that will speak to all crafters.”

Iona

The Winters
by Lisa Gabriele

“I couldn't put this book down! It is a great retelling of Daphne du Maurier's Rebecca.”