

Patron Requests

The library welcomes patron interest in the collection and will consider all requests for specific materials depending on the availability and suitability of the item for the collection. The library is under no obligation to fill any particular request.

Patrons may offer selection recommendations. Final responsibility for selection of all library materials is vested in the Library Director of each library in the Burnet County Library System. Other trained staff members may contribute to collection development.